Description: Zack Delacruz is unnoticed at his middle school—and that's just the way he likes it. But a school assembly, a typhoon of spit, and an uncharacteristic moment of bravery are all it takes to change everything. Suddenly Zack is in charge of the class fundraiser. Worse, his partner is the school's biggest bully! If they don't sell all the chocolate bars,...

I hope the author is planing on writing a series. We never say "draw the curtains" in our house, or many of the other dated phrases. But meeting Zeph and Z really turn that switch on. It fact I am pretty sure I have all of her books, she is one of my very favorites. This book features Beau and Wade.

Newer characters make first appearances who would turn out to become favorites as well: Blue and his ridiculously large endowment and Marty, his good-suffering boss who tries to keep things professional between the two of them. This makes the books really fun to read. She judged everyone by her religious beliefs. As Javin and Claudia strive to find the 2 terrorist masterminds they have been sent after, something goes wrong right from the start. Other works I have read have discussed this phenomenon, which is simple human nature. Wondering if it was a returned copy.
